About John L. Bell, WGRG & Iona Community

JOHN L. BELL

John Bell is based in Glasgow and works with his colleagues in the areas of music, worship and spirituality. He does not have a mobile phone, driving license, camera, iPod or wife. He has never traced his family origins, played a guitar or eaten a Big Mac. He is neither Leader nor Musical Director of the Iona Community. He is simply a Wild Goose Resource Worker.

THE WILD GOOSE RESOURCE GROUP ...

...is a semi-autonomous project of The Iona Community and an expression of its commitment to the renewal of music and worship, consisting of John Bell, Graham Maule and Jo Love (Resource Workers), and administrative staff, based in the Community's Glasgow office. For over 25 years, the Group has been engaged at local, national and international levels, enabling lay and ordained leadership. In association with colleagues and friends, the Group has produced a large range of music books, CDs and resources for worship which are published throughout the English speaking world, with some materials available in several European and Asian languages; www.wgrg.co.uk.

THE IONA COMMUNITY ...

...is an association of men and women, lay and ordained, fully ecumenical in membership, committed to the renewal of the Church and Society. The members, around 270 in number, keep a rule of faith which concerns their prayer life, time, money, engagement in promotion of social and international justice, and which requires them to meet regularly in regional or plenary gatherings throughout Britain. Begun in 1938 by (Lord) George MacLeod, a Presbyterian minister, the Community has had a catalyst effect within Britain in the areas of peacemaking, ecumenism, justice and liturgy. Only a few members live on Iona, as members of the Resident Group. Others, married and single, have their own secular jobs which range from retired miner to cathedral musician. The work of the Community is supported by over 2500 associates & friends who live worldwide. No members are monks or nuns, nor are any required to be aficionados of Gregorian Chant or experts in Celtic Spirituality.
