

Pastoral Care Summit

Central Michigan University

Dr. Terencio Daunte McGlasson, Associate Professor of Counselor Education at CMU would like to invite all area clergy, faith-based counselors and interested students to a unique summit on campus in September 2015. Dr. McGlasson will be joined by Connie Baker from Portland, Oregon. Both are licensed professional counselors with decades of experience, both are seminary trained and both have taught on faculty at Christian colleges. The summit instructors understand that churches and houses of worship are poised on the frontline of our community, building relationships, promoting holistic health and mending the wounds of their parishioners. We would like to help you, to help them through this affordable, one-day interactive summit and we look forward to hearing from you!
