N/WLM Women of the ELCA Synodical Board

Dear Women of the ELCA,

Well, here we are your Board hard at work. I say this tongue in cheek as this is one of the few breaks we took the weekend of January 30 & 31, 2015. We held our quarterly board meeting at Eagle Village near Reed City as a working retreat and work is exactly what we did.

We managed to complete the much needed review of our constitution to assure the changes made by church-wide at the Triennial last July were in order and to approve the Hillsdale unit's new constitution. We established a working agenda for our newly formed Anti-Human Trafficking Committee of which Barbara Hazlett is our chairwoman. Barb will be speaking at our Spring Gathering in Kent City on April 18. You won't want to miss this event.. Finally we were able to put together the program, entertainment, speakers etc. for our Fall Convention/Retreat that is to be held at the Kettenun Center in Tustin, the weekend of September 25 & 26, 2015. This is another event you won't want to miss, so mark the date on your calendar.

On February 20th I flew to the Lutheran Center in Chicago where I attended the annual Conference of Presidents for the weekend along with most of the other synodical presidents from various regions. I learned a great deal and got some fabulous ideas from the other regions on programming, conventions, retreats and where to find workshop leaders. I can't wait to share it with the other board members so that it will keep our Region of 6B refreshing and new.

My next sojourn will be the tail end of May when I attend the Synod Assembly in Lansing, until then I will be getting rid of the nasty cold I managed to catch the end of January and still have. I made the mistake of bragging about how I hadn't gotten a cold in over six years and that cold bug chuckled to herself and followed me home from the Board Retreat. Evidently, it was Formica I knocked on and not wood.

I hope to see many of you at the Spring Gathering, it looks to be another productive day of fellowship, gaining knowledge, and good food which we all know is definitely important....

Take care and have a glorious Easter!

Holy Humor

By Linda Ward

A flight attendant was having a bad morning with numerous problems. Some of the passengers were causing grief too. When she started taking lunch orders, she approached one of the more troublesome passengers and asked, "Would you like some lunch?" He said,

"Well, that depends: what are the choices?" She replied, "Yes or no".

Sometimes in life we seem to complicate things for ourselves. When we have choices, we use all kinds of rationalizations and qualifiers. We add all kinds of trivial specifications to make the choice even harder. Maybe we need to simplify and ask ourselves, "Yes or no" first!

From The Editor's Desk

What is a hero? According to Webster a hero is a person who is admired for great or brave acts or fine qualities. We have many heroes in our lives usually beginning with our parents and quickly we are taught about the greatest of all our Holy Father and His son our Lord Jesus.

What about the other heroes? You know the ones you admire from afar or the ones you hear about in the news. Like the rescuers from 9-11, or the soldiers who have so bravely served our country in the armed forces. Then there are the ones we see on a regular basis. You know the ones I am talking about, the friend who is fighting a horrid disease but you would never know it because even when asked she never dwells on it and somehow always manages to change the subject. This is the one you never seem to be able to tell that she is a hero in your eyes.

I have such a person in my life. I am going to call her Gloria because if I use her name she will truly be embarrassed and that is not what this is about.

Gloria is the woman who can't just join an organization, she has to jump in with both feet and has never heard the word no. It just isn't in her vocabulary. When I need help or a sounding board for one of my many problems she is always just a phone call away.

She has a family, husband, career and home but always has time for something at the church, community events, friends, or organizations that need help from a volunteer. It amazes me that she has anytime for herself but she finds that too. She puts the Lord first in her life and everyone knows this without being told. She is lovely on the outside because she has such a beautiful soul that lets her glow from within.

She is my hero and the person I want to grow up to be like. I have never told her this because I just assumed she would know how I felt.

I know each of you reading this understand what I am talking about because you are lucky enough to have one or two women similar to this in your life.

So, I challenge you to quietly go up to her within the next few days and say just to her, "You are my hero and I thank God that He put you in my life." I'm going to.

Please don't throw me away or stick me in a pile. Instead take me apart, copy me and share me with your friends.

The Editor and I will appreciate it!

Today's Dream: Tomorrow's Reality

Racial Justice Advocacy

By Phyllis Lindsey

Ferris State University invited Thirza Defoe, from the Ojibwe and Oneida Native American tribes of Wisconsin to present a terrific program this February.

Today people of American Indian tribes walk in two worlds. The desire is strong to keep alive the traditions and the soul of their culture. There is also a strong wish to share the way of life they know with the other people among whom they live and work, and to learn of the ways of others in return. Only through a greater knowing can we live together in harmony, accepting, and celebrating what makes us one as well as what makes us unique.

Thirza brought two other Native Americans with her, Raymond Cadotte whom shared his traditional knowledge through museum tours and presentations as well as spiritual and culture events. Ray is a champion men's traditional dancer.

Raymond's wife, Julie Whitepigeon has been a jingle dress dancer for 22 years. She teaches at Central Michigan University the Ojibway language in the history department. She practices the traditional native teachings.

Thirza is widely known for her sacred hoop dancing and eagle dancer. She shares her culture: Traditional Iroquois social songs, storytelling, hoop dancing, eagle dancing and the Ojibwe language through educational presentations and performances for audiences of all ages and cultural backgrounds.

SPRING GATHERING

By Lynn Flegel

It's time to think Spring. Spring Gathering that is.... and it is upon us! When? Saturday, April 18. Where? Mamrelund Lutheran Church, Kent City.

Mamrelund is located out in the country among the fruit trees north and slightly west of Grand Rapids.

If we are lucky, the tree bark may be turning reddish-brown, one of the earliest signs of spring. Hopefully the air will be balmy, and the snow will be melted.

Surely there will be spring colors on the tables, bright smiles, and cheerful voices to welcome you to a day filled with fellowship with your sisters in Christ!

Early registration is appreciated for planning purposes, but the cost is only $10 which includes lunch and refreshments on arrival and it can be paid at the door (see registration form elsewhere in this newsletter.) You can use the form for multiple women and girls. If you forget to register early, you are welcome to register at the door.

Our program is coming together nicely. We know for sure you will be inspired by the music we have planned to help us lift our voices in praise and worship! We will also be conducting a tour of the Mamrelund Community Center, which houses several ministries in which BOLD women take an active role. Our keynote speaker, Barb Hazlett, is getting ready to give you all the latest information on a vital and important issue Women of the ELCA have chosen as an initiative to become BOLDLY involved in: Human Trafficking. It is not only at our doorstep here in lower Michigan but has wedged it's ugly head in the door.

We need to learn more about this so we can prevent it from happening to someone we know, or being pervasive in our communities.

On a practical note, we would like to encourage as many of you who are able to bring diapers with you when you come.

In 2015 our Lutheran youth are collecting this item for use in Detroit when they go there for the annual ELCA Youth Gathering.

What a great way to support our youth on their service day in that city! The greatest need is for sizes 3 and 4, but all sizes, including incontinence supplies for adults, will be appreciated. We will see they get to the right place. Checks made out to Women of the ELCA with "Youth Gathering—diapers" in the memo line, will be used for us to buy diapers.

Look for the diaper bags at the registration table when you arrive. See you there!

Let's have a great turn out

Scholarship Fund

By June Keysor

Just what is the N/WLM Scholarship Fund all about? It is a way to help any woman of our organization who can't afford to go to an event sponsored by our synod, region, or national organization.

I for one live on a fixed income, believe me I would like to fix it to make it stretch further every month. There are many things I couldn't have done if not for the scholarship fund.

So, if things are tight and you need some help to attend an event you see in the newsletter like the Fall Convention/Retreat in September. Contact our Vice-president Peggy Ruitter who is also in charge of the Scholarship Fund. Just fill out the form you will find at the back of this newsletter and send it to:

Peggy Ruitter
1965 Cutler Ave.
Muskegon, MI 49441
ruitpeggy@gmail.com
(231) 670-5751

Ladies I implore you to take advantage of this benefit so that you may attend any event offered to you. We do have limited funds and would like anyone who applies to receive some help so we are asking you to pay a part of the funds you need to attend the event. This can be done through your own funds, those of a friend or relative or your home church. Many have special funds budgeted just for this purpose.

As my Granny used to say "It never hurts to ask," you could be pleasantly surprised.

To the Women of the ELCA N/WLM Synod:

Below you will find a special nomination form to be used if you feel you have a bold woman in your church unit who would make an excellent delegate to our Triennial in July of 2017. She is someone who has been active at both your local level and the synod level, either as an officer or board member and she regularly attends functions i.e. gatherings, retreats, conventions etc. We would prefer if she attends the Convention on September 26, 2015, so that she is available if the delegates have any questions to ask her prior to the vote for our Triennial delegates. We will be selecting three (3) delegates and two (2) alternates in case one of our delegates are unable to attend for any reason. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

June Keysor, N/WLM Synodical President

TRIENNIAL DELEGATE NOMINATION FORM

Women of the ELCA Tenth Triennial Convention

Each congregational unit may nominate one woman and submit that name to the Synodical Nominating Committee. The Committee will prepare the slate of candidates to be voted on at the N/WLM Synodical Women of the ELCA Convention at Kettunen Center in Tustin, MI on September 26, 2015.

Of the three (3) delegates elected from N/WLM Synod one (1) must be a first time delegate. Returning delegates can only serve 2 conventions in succession.

Please complete this nomination form and send it by September 13, 2015 to:
