

Memorial A - Amendment 2

Resolved, that the churchwide expression of the ELCA encourage congregations and synods to advocate for a just transition away from greenhouse gases with at least 40% of the governmental funding in the energy sector going towards projects that directly benefit poverty stricken indigenous, black, and other people of color communities that bear a disproportionate cost of pollution and climate change; and be it further