

Dear Generosity Project Champions and Leaders,

THANK YOU! Thank you for your leadership in these worrisome and fear-producing times. The daily news is filled with the very real question, “Will there be enough –medical equipment, hospital beds, well health care providers, sanitizers and disinfectants, toilet paper, food, income...?” At the same time, we hear inspirational stories of the generosity of people’s time, skills, putting one’s self at risk to care for others, and sharing of commodities.

Conversations about money can be challenging for congregations and households in the most normal of times. But in this time of COVID-19, these discussions become essential, and most likely even more difficult. In a time of fear and unknowns related to one’s job, income, and budgets, Pastor Olivia Bryan Updegrove, Co-minister for Family and Children’s Ministry at Disciples Home Missions, shares this, “Talking about money can be done in deeply faithful ways when we remember that we are in relationship with a generous God who loves humanity. God’s generosity is not just a conversation with [or between] adults about money, but it is a conversation that should be had between generations who bring gifts [and unique perspectives] to offer to God.”

The Generosity Project (TGP) - ELCA is providing the 5G: Live It Out! resource (PDF attached) to you and your households for free. This resource is intended to encourage conversation and support households in their role as God’s stewards and financial managers during this time of economic crisis and fear. Please encourage your households to use this resource to find hope in God’s Story and engage in these faithful conversations.

Live It Out! was specifically designed for household conversation based on the six TGP: 5G Sessions. One need only add a COVID-19 lens to make the questions and conversations incredibly relevant for this time of crisis - and hope.

Lesson 1. How does this household talk about money in a time such as this?

Lesson 2. How is our household the recipient of generosity during COVID-19?

Lesson 3. Where and how are we generous and caring for one another in our own home and beyond?

Bonus Activity, p.11, based on Acts 2:42-47, “they gathered In the temple AND they gathered in their homes,” is an inventory of household faith practices and how to begin new ones during this time of dwelling and sheltering in our homes.

Lesson 4. What is our family’s purpose in these fear-filled, unknown times? How do we make a plan to be responsible stewards of all God has provided as we live-day-to-day?

Lesson 5. “Nothing is impossible with God!” How does the impact of COVID-19 motivate us to be unexpectedly generous?

Lesson 6. We now know God’s Story. What is our household story of generosity? What will it be going forward in these uncertain times?

Each Live It Out! lesson offers a Generosity Challenge that involves counting a household object. This exercise seems incredibly timely as we wonder, “will we have enough –food, toilet paper, sanitizing agents, etc.?” Besides adding the counting of toilet paper rolls to the list, this exercise will challenge our households to be generous, even in a time such as this. The final Generosity Challenge invites households to plan a feast and invite ten people - how could this be tweaked in this time of physical distancing? I look forward to your creative solutions and ideas!

Using the social media platforms (that you are now all proficient at using!), consider hosting online discussions with your households and generational cohorts as a part of your ministry of connecting church with home. How could this serve as a resource and focus for Holy Week, VBS for all generations, or summer Family Camp – in person or virtual?

Please let Keith Mundy, ELCA Director of Stewardship Programming, or me know how we can support you in this time when there is desperate need for the message of a loving, generous and grace-filled God.

LIVE IT OUT!

Take home conversation starters to nurture the practice of generosity in our households and daily lives.

Live It Out! is a household supplement to The Generosity Project: 5G Sessions and Worship. The Live It Out! conversation starters are intended for households with one or more members, those sharing living space temporarily or permanently; for immediate family, extended family; and friends of all ages and generations. They are intended for those who may experience multiple religious traditions or no faith practices in their daily life.

Each conversation session consists of a theme, a goal, a key question, further discussion prompts and words of affirmation and blessing. Corresponding activity pages help launch conversations into understanding and action.

The goal of the Generosity Challenge is to explore the meaning of tithing and the idea of sharing 10 percent of all we earn or own. It is meant to trigger further conversation – and a generous response.

The six household conversation starters may be used in six days, six weeks, six months or as part of a congregational initiative related to The Generosity Project. Allow plenty of time for these important conversations. May these conversations and activities help shape the practice of generosity now and for many generations to come!

Note: If a household of one, please substitute “me” for “we” and “my” for “our.” Think about those with whom you could have these conversations – extended family members or a small group of friends.

Being Generous: The WHY

Conversation Goal

Identify this household's giving patterns and practices

Conversation #1

Our Household Identity and Story

Do your family members know how much you share and give of your financial wealth? With so many methods available to exchange currency, it is easy for the significance of giving to be overlooked and unknown to one another. Research shows children learn sound financial health and generosity when they see parents and significant adults model this as a priority in their lives.

If you do not already have an established pattern of giving, consider a conversation to discuss when and how you as a household might begin.

Key Question

Does each person in this household know how we share and are generous with what we have been given?

Discussion Prompts

- How does this household talk about money? What words do we use?
- Who decides how we distribute our money, especially related to regular giving?
- What is tithing? Do we do it? (Use the internet to look up the word and meaning)
- Do we support a church or institution of faith? Organizations or other causes?
- Do we have an emergency fund? Are we saving for college, vacation, house repairs, retirement, etc.?
- What are our household's essential expenditures for living? Which ones are Wants? Which ones are Needs?
- How much of our spending is influenced by advertising?
- Why do we share? Give?

God's Story Genesis 1:27-31a (CEV). "So, God created humans in God's own image; God made men and women. God gave them a blessing and said: Have a lot of children! Fill the earth with people and bring it under your control. Rule over the fish in the ocean, the birds in the sky, and every animal on the earth. I have provided all kinds of fruit and grain for you to eat. And I have given the green plants as food for everything else that breathes. These will be food for animals, both wild and tame, and for birds. God looked at all that was created. All of it was very good!"

Affirmation + Blessing

I am created in the image of a generous God. I give because I want to mirror a generous God.

Connecting Generations: Conversation Goal

The WHO

Identify and celebrate the people of all ages who are examples of generosity that surround this household.

Conversation #2

Ripples of Generosity

Who are the models of generosity for you? Have you been the recipients of the generosity of others? Who are the extended family members or friends who have shared their time, talent or wealth with you? Recall and name beloved friends, community members and others whose generosity have shaped your life. Listen to one another's stories. Make a photo collage of people who have impacted your life in big ways and small ways. If living, send them a note expressing your appreciation.

Key Question

Who has given generously to us?

Discussion Prompts

- When have we been recipients of the generosity of others?
- For whose generosity am I most thankful?
- What are the giving patterns over the generations in our family? Do we want to change these patterns in some way?
- Does the giving of others inspire us to be generous?
- Does one's age matter in acting generously?

God's Story John 6:1-14 (CEV). "When Jesus saw the large crowd coming toward him, he asked Philip, 'Where will we get enough food to feed all these people?' He said this to test Philip, since he already knew what he was going to do. Philip answered, 'Don't you know that it would take almost a year's wages just to buy only a little bread for each of these people?' Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the disciples. He spoke up and said, 'There is a boy here who has five small loaves of barley bread, and two fish. But what good is that with all these people?' The ground was covered with grass, and Jesus told his disciples to have everyone sit down. About five thousand men were in the crowd. Jesus took the bread in his hands and gave thanks to God. Then he passed the bread to the people and he did the same with the fish, until everyone had plenty to eat. The people ate all they wanted, and Jesus told his disciples to gather up the leftovers so that nothing would be wasted. The disciples gathered them up and filled twelve large baskets with what was left over from the five barley loaves. After the people had seen Jesus work this miracle, they began saying, 'This must be the Prophet who is come into the world!'"

Affirmation + Blessing

God has blessed us through the abundant generosity of others. We will joyfully share what God has provided us.

The Generosity Challenge

How many canned goods or jars of food are in our cupboards and pantry? Count them. What is 10% of that number? What would it mean to give away or purchase 10% of the number of canned and jarred items in our cupboards? How hard would this be to do? Who suffers from being hungry? To whom or where would we go to donate these items?

Equipping Households: The WHERE

Conversation Goal

Identify all the places and ways this household can practice generosity.

Conversation #3

Where Do We Practice Generosity?

One only needs to read or hear the news to know there are many communities of faith, organizations, people, and places that could benefit from acts of generosity. The great needs of the world need attention and heart-felt care. Take some time to identify the places that stir your passion for giving. All ages can find ways and places to share.

Key Question

Where are all the places and what are all the ways we could be generous with our treasure (money), time, and talents?

Discussion Prompts

- What issues or concerns are most important to each of us? This household?
- What or who compels us most deeply to give?
- What are the ways we can support those issues and needs we most care about in addition to our financial gifts? (Ex. recycling)
- What is the difference between charity and generosity? (Do a web search if unsure.)
- What do we need to do and know to practice responsible and wise generous giving?

God's Story Acts 2:41-47 (CEV). "On that day about three thousand believed his message and were baptized. They spent their time learning from the apostles, and they were like family to each other. They also broke bread and prayed together. Everyone was amazed by the many miracles and wonders that the apostles worked. All the Lord's followers often met together, and they shared everything they had. They would sell their property and possessions and give the money to whoever needed it. Day after day they met together in the temple. They broke bread together in different homes and shared their food happily and freely, while praising God. Everyone liked them, and each day the Lord added to their group others who were being saved."

Affirmation + Blessing

God equips us and has given us many opportunities to give and share at home and away from home.

Write the letter "B" by that practice. Discuss when, where and how I/we will make it happen.

I/we invite the Holy Spirit to work in our hearts and household as I/we practice generosity.

- God's Story: Regularly read and study the Bible to personally learn more about God.
 - Learn. Teach: Share God's Story with one another, using age appropriate Bibles, storybooks and technology.
 - Caring Conversation: Share highs and lows and find God's Story in one another's stories.
 - Mealtimes: Regularly eat meals together – with all "tech" turned off.
 - Serve: Joyfully serve one another and regularly host guests for a meal in our home.
 - Pray: Pray at mealtime, bedtime, sick time, car time, school time, anytime and anywhere.
 - Share: Easily and joyfully share possessions and wealth with those outside this household and family.
 - Care: Take deliberate action to care for our neighbor, our community and the earth.
 - Identity: Talk and act in ways that reflect our creator God who sent us Jesus to follow.
 - Cross-Generational Relationships: Create opportunities for friendships and caring relationships with faith-filled people of all ages.
 - Worship: Regularly gather to worship with a community of faith.
 - Bless: Practice forgiveness and grace. Affirm and celebrate one another's gifts. Live joyfully and share freely.
 - Music: Sing, play or listen to music that praises God and brings joy, peace and healing in our lives.
 - Amazed and Awed: Live with a sense of gratefulness every day for God's grace and generosity.
- I covenant with God and one another to become a center for the faith practice of generosity. Add household signature(s) here:

Creating Centers For Generosity: The HOW

Conversation Goal

Become a center of generosity by creating a household purpose statement and commitment to practice generosity 24–7–365

Conversation #4

Make A Plan

It is time to form a plan around the conversations that have engaged you so far. You have become informed on your household giving patterns where you could pour out care and generosity. Now it is time to take action!

Key Question

How can we begin to fully live a life of intentional generosity in response to God's love for us?

Discussion Prompts

- What is our purpose as a family?
- How does that purpose inform our sharing and generosity?
- What two items from those we brainstormed in Session 3 do you want to commit to our giving? How much of our treasure? Our time? Our talents?
- How can we commit to giving and serving our church and community of faith?

God's Story 2 Corinthians 8:1-9 (CEV). "My friends, we want you to know that the churches in Macedonia have shown others how kind God is. Although they were going through hard times and were very poor, they were glad to give generously. They gave as much as they could afford and even more, simply because they wanted to. They even asked and begged us to let them have the joy of giving their money for God's people. And they did more than we had hoped. They gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us; just as God wanted them to do...I am not ordering you to do this. I am simply testing how real your love is by comparing it with the concern that others have shown. You know that our Lord Jesus Christ was kind enough to give up all his riches and become poor so that you could become rich."

Affirmation + Blessing

God, use us to respond joyfully to the needs of this world with our acts of generosity.

Living God's Story: HERE & NOW

Conversation Goal

Discover that my household can respond to God's surprising and unexpected nudges to be generous – and do what may seem impossible.

Conversation #5 When Pigs Fly – Nothing Is Impossible With God!

Sometimes you may be moved to give beyond your planned and intentional giving. A specific situation may move you to give to someone in need. You may feel the desire to help an entire community when tragedy or disaster has occurred. You may feel moved to support a person or organization that helps others and cares for God's creation. Spontaneous giving may be prompted by the Spirit and is another way to grow and nurture generosity in our lives.

Key Question When have we unexpectedly felt motivated to be generous?

Discussion Prompts

- What are some situations or examples where we may want to give of our treasure, time or talent unexpectedly? (Ex.: disasters, someone we personally encounter, or a fundraiser at school)
- How can we be open to giving and sharing unexpectedly?
- Is there a limit to our generosity?
- Do we need to consult with one another before giving and sharing spontaneously?
- How does giving spontaneously fit into our household mission statement?
- Is there a difference between responsible and irresponsible giving?

God's Story Matthew 19:23-30 (CEV). Jesus said to his disciples, "It's terribly hard for rich people to get into the kingdom of heaven! In fact, it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to get into God's kingdom." When the disciples heard this, they were greatly surprised and asked, "How can anyone ever be saved?" Jesus looked straight at them and said, "There are some things that people cannot do, but God can do anything!" Peter replied, "Remember, we have left everything to be your followers! What will we get?" Jesus answered: "Yes, all of you have become my followers. And so in the future world, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, I promise that you will sit on twelve thrones to judge the twelve tribes of Israel. All who have given up home or brothers and sisters or father and mother or children or land for me will be given hundred times as much. They will also have eternal life. But many who are now first will be last, and many who are last will be first."

Affirmation + Blessing God, with you all things are possible. Lead us and help our household grow in generosity and unexpected giving and sharing.

GOD'S STORY OF GENEROSITY IN US

As a household discuss and select one of God's stories, words or phrases below that most closely reflects your own story of generosity, or the story you would like to become. Highlight the story or words you chose.

TGP: 5G #1. So, God created humans [in God's image]; [God] made men and women. [God] gave them a blessing and said: Have a lot of children! Fill the earth with people and bring it under your control. The Generosity Challenge

We celebrate – Our Household is ready! Let's plan a feast...Who are ten people (family, friends, classmates, neighbors) we can invite to join us in celebrating God's generosity? How about a picnic at a local park, our backyard, apartment, or church? We will invite guests to bring a favorite dish or food item. They can be a part of the generosity story by contributing one of the following: a canned good, book, new socks or undies, something with wheels, or light bulbs – or one of each! We already know where to donate these items! We will encourage everyone to join in naming and celebrating acts of generosity witnessed each and every day:
