

A Weekend with Emmy Kegler

October 18-20 2019

Emmy Kegler is the pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Northeast Minneapolis. Emmy has a Master's in Divinity from Luther Seminary and is an ordained pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America. She was raised in the Episcopal Church and spent some time in evangelical and non-denominational traditions before finding her home in the ELCA.

Pastor Emmy is a co-leader of the Queer Grace Community, a group of LGBTQ+ Christians who meet for worship, Bible study, and fellowship. She founded and edits Queer Grace, an encyclopedia of online resources around LGBTQ life and faith. Emmy lives in St. Paul with her wife Michelle and she enjoys biking, board games, books, and spending time with their two dogs and cat

Emmy Kegler's first book, One Coin Found: How God's Love Stretches to the Margins, tells her story as a queer Christian called to ordained ministry and how it formed her relationship with Scripture. Pastor Emmy is passionate about curating worship and theological practices that dismantle barriers to those historically marginalized by Christian practice. She believes in and works for a church rooted in accessibility, intentionality, integrity, and transformation, knowing that God is already out ahead of us creating expansive space for those most hungry for the good and liberating news of Jesus.
